Assembly met to-day and adopted a resolution adjourning until next Monday out of respect to Senator Hanna. At that time the two houses will be formally notified by Governor Herrick of the death of the senator and two weeks later, on March 1, a ballot will be taken for a successor in the United States Senate.

The political situation is very unsettled at the present time, and who the Republicans will agree upon is beyond conjecture. Governor Herrick is frequently spoken of, but political alliances make it almost impossible to accept the honor. Congressman Charles Dick, chairman of the Republican state legislative committee, is also mentioned as a logical candidate. Judge Taft, who but recently returned from the Philippines to become secretary of war, is considered by many as being in the race and other names are mentioned. No one it is generally agreed that but for the fact that Lieutenant Governor Harding is objectionable to Herrick's friends as a successor to the gubernatorial chair, he (Herrick) would be chosen. It may be that some unmentioned candidate will be given the short term and Herrick elected to the long term. The plan has many suporters, but the difficulty is said to be in finding Governor Herrick to-day issued Capitol placed at half mast. The Governor tor Hanna and strong influence will be Moore, Lewis Nixon, Marcus Marks, ever, and despite the desire to keep the senatorial succession in the background for the present, the lines are already practically drawn. The active political adherents of the late Senator Hanna in Toledo, Cleveland and Columbus are outspoken for the selection of Gen. Charles Dick. The friends of Senator Foraker are lining up for Governor Herrick, whose election to the Senate would place Lleutenant Governor Warren S. Harding, a Foraker man, at the head of the party in the State.

on Friday afternoon.

The Hanna men have not decided what to do in the event of Governor Herrick becoming a candidate. They may support him. Some of them talk of continuing to support Dick in that event, and if he should not be strong enough, to line up for Secretary of War Taft. The reported candidacy of George B. Cox would complicate matters. They, however, profess to believe that Herrick will not be a candidate. A Hanna leader to-day declared to be true the report that Senator Hanna shortly before his death expressed the desire that he should be succeeded by General Dick. This request from the dying senator will weigh strongly with a large number of the members of the Legislature.

Once Told Mrs. Hanna He Liked Her Husband as Much as Law Permitted.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 .- At the White House to-day the President and all the attaches shared in the general sorrow over the death of Senator Hanna. President Roosevelt, the members of his Cabinet, senators and representatives in Congress and callers of all classes sadly paid tribute to the memory of the dead statesman.

From the entrance of the lamented Mc-

Kinley into the White House Senator Hanna was a conspicuous figure at the executive mansion. Both before and after he became a member of the Senate, Mr. Hanna was a frequent caller at the White House, and his visits have been frequent since Mr. Roosevelt succeeded to the presidency. President Roosevelt entertained a cordial regard for Senator Hanna and the senator cordially reciprocated that feeling. Their personal regard was based on the firmest respect. While they differed at times, as strong men may differ, their personal relations never were endangered by their differences. Indeed, so high was the regard which the President held Mr. Hanna's SCHOOL BONDS in which the President held Mr. Hanna's ability as a political manager and as a potent force in national affairs that a few months ago he requested him urgently in the event of his nomination for the presidency to assume again the cares and re-J. Both Houses Adjourn After Adopting Resolutions and Appointing Committees.

MR. FORAKER'S REMARKS

Brief Address in the Senate-House Reading Clerk Gives Way to His Emotion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.-Formal announcement of the death of Senator Hanna was made in the Senate to-day immediately after the opening prayer and all the brief proceedings of the day pertained to its announcement. The duty of making the official statement of the senator's death fell to Mr. Foraker, as Mr. Hanna's colleague. Most of the late senator's colleagues were in their seats before the Senate was called the sorrow which all felt. The galleries, too, were crowded and through the entire assembly there was an evident sense of depression, scarcely less marked than that which pervaded the Senate itself. The opening prayer was delivered by the Senate chapiain, Dr. Edward Everett Hale. On motion of Mr. Aldrich the formality of was omitted and Mr. Foraker was recognized to make his announcement. spoke only a few words, from manuscript,

"Mr. President-I have a painful duty to perform. It is that of making formal announcement of the death of my late col-league, Marcus A. Hanna. He departed this life in this city, at the Arlington Hotel, where he had been residing during this session of the Senate, at the hour of 6:40 p. m. yesterday, surrounded by his family and intimate friends.

"The event was not unexpected at the ime it occurred. For months past it has been evident to all who were associated with him that he was in failing health. He was urgently and repeatedly advised to desist from his labors and make a special effort to resist his maladies, but his strong will power, hopeful nature and fidelity to duty were such that he disregarded all such suggestions and continued at his post until three weeks ago, when he was prostrated by typhoid fever.

"His friends then became justly alarmed. That alarm spread throughout the country, and in response to unusual manifestations of public sympathy his physicians bulltined his condition daily, and finally almost hourly. As the days passed he failed until all recognized that the 'inevitable hour' was approaching. Thus it was that the end did ot come as a surprise, but the regret it has occasioned appears to be more profound and universal on that account.

"His bereaved family have been the recipients of messages and telegrams of grief and condolences from all sections and from all classes. He is mournerd by all his countrymen-by his political associates, not done because he was their great organizing leader, who repeatedly led them to victory, but also, and more especially, because he had gained their affections and reigned some time ago that the condition of his from Europe $474,927,159 worth of goods, of in their hearts as a favorite-by his politwhich $30,000,000 worth was carried in Amer- ical opponents because they are chivalrous and generous enough to experience sorrow when a brave man falls, though he be of the opposition, and because they recognized in him a bold and fearless foeman, who ommanded their respect and excited their admiration. "It is unnecessary to speak in this presence of the great loss his death has occasioned to his party, his State and the Nation. the Senate to attend the funeral services of the late Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, to be held in the Senate chamber to-morrow at 12 o'clock noon, and that the speaker of the House appoint a committee of twenty-five members to act in conjunction with the committee of the Senate to make the necessary arrangements and accompany the remains to the place of burial. "Resolved, That, as a further mark of respect, the House does now adjourn."

House of Representatives of the State of Ohio, and formerly Lieutenant Governor of that State, reported the resolutions to the House. His reading manifested at once that he was affected by the passing away of the distinguished citizen from his State. His voice choked, his bands trembled and at times it was with difficulty that he proceeded with the reading. It was only by a great effort that he performed the task. It was with still greater difficulty that he read the committee list appointed by the speaker. When Mr. Lampson pronounced the last name on the list he sank back in his chair. His emotion overcame him and he wept. The House was hushed in deep silence when the speaker in soft and subdued voice, laid the resolutions before the House and announced their adoption. ### Impaired Digestion

May not be all that is meant by dyspepsia now, but it will be if neglected. The uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, sourness of the stomach, and disagreeable belching may not be very bad now, but they will be if the stomach is suffered to grow weaker. Dyspepsia is such a miserable disease that the tendency to it should be given early attention. This is completely over-

CURED BY CUTICURA

Which Acted Like a Charm After Doctors and Hospitals Failed.

Here is another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disfiguring skin humors daily made by Cuticura Resolvent, assisted by Cuticura Ointment and Soap, after physicians, hospitals and all else had failed.

"I feel it my duty to try to help those suffering from skin diseases. My case was a very bad one, covering all of one side of my face and had reached my eve. I had two or three doctors prescribe without any relief. They said my disease was Epithelioma. I was then advised to go to one of our hospitals, which I did, taking their treatment for some time. I had given up all hope when my husband asked me to try the Cuticura Remedies. My face being in such a very bad state, I used the Cuticura Soap with luke-warm water and a small silk sponge and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. I took one teaspoonful of the Resolvent four times a day. They acted like a charm, and in one week's time my face was cured entirely and has remained so. I certainly can recommend the Cutlcura Remedies as infallible." MRS. A. G. SMITH, 2400 Catharine St.,

Feb. 9, 1903. Philadelphia. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made Cuticura Remedies the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the world.
